We are pleased to invite you to the spectacular Bharatnatyam dance performance by the renowned Bharatnatyam dancer from India, Dr Father Saju George Moolamthuruthil SJ on Friday, 15th June, 2012 at Elzenhof, Hall 1 in Brussels.

Dr Father Saju George Moolamthuruthil SJ also known as the 'Dancing Jesuit' is a dynamic artist with a rare vision and passion for Indian art and culture. For Fr Saju, dance is a means of prayer and worship, self-actualisation and God-realisation, aesthetic delight and cosmic integration, social service, promotion of peace and inter-religious harmony, ecumenism and much more. He firmly believes in the healing power of the arts, especially of song and dance both on a personal and global level.

Deeply intrigued by the Kalakshetra genre of Bharatnatyam, Fr Saju has imbibed and perfected the art of Bharatnatyam from a galaxy of eminent gurus such as Shri K Rajakumar, Shri Khagendra Nath Barman, Padmashri Leela Samson and others.

He is also trained in Kuchipudi, Kathakali, Manipuri, Kakaripayattu, theatre, yoga and counselling. Fr Saju has learned Carntic vocal music and also the Mrindangam from renowned gurus like Kaimamani Rev Dr PT Chelladurai SJ.

Fr Saju is also involved actively in providing help and support to Shanti Nir which is a Social Welfare and Humanitarian Centre in Kolkata. It has been providing lots of opportunities and scope for intellectual and human growth for the many marginalised children since 1973. It offers personal care and educational support to hundreds of needy students.
